

Company Summary

Headquartered in St. Louis, Missouri, Confidus Group has been meeting the business needs of customers for over a decade, by providing technology personnel and technology solutions designed to improved business operation performance, within budgetary requirements, thus generating long term growth for our clients.

With years of consulting, resource placement, solution application development, and data center hosting / collocation service experience, Confidus has delivered and managed solutions for companies from the "Small/Medium Business" market to Fortune 500 enterprises.

At Confidus Group our goal is very clear. Partnering with you to simplify your technology decisions!

Company Offering

IT Staffing

Confidus Group provides both short term and long term IT personnel resources to support your business goals and needs. Whether the needs are specific project driven or day-to-day business operations driven, Confidus Group has IT personnel who can assist.

Solutions

Confidus Group's management and execution teams have been developing high performing solutions for our clients in the areas of Disaster Recovery, Web Applications, Information Technology Operation Applications and Communication / Messaging for over 10 years.

Hosting / Collocation

Confidus Group provides a robust suite of Hosting and Collocation services, designed to provide business continuity, security and access to your data and systems. Utilizing our 20,000 plus square feet of data center, we provide state of the art facilities and 24x7 support staff for your needs.

Consulting

Averaging over 7 years in the IT consulting arena, Confidus Group consultants can assist your organization through consulting engagements designed to identify, implement and measure your technology needs for long-term profitability and efficient operations.

For additional information about Confidus Group, please visit our website at www.confidus.com or call (636) 442-4489.